

3 AD

Augustus Proconsular Imperium extended for another 10 years.

Sept. 9, 3AD

Valerius was critically wounded during the siege of the rebel-held town of AETAGIRA, by a well aimed arrow that pierced his leather tunic. He fell into a bathys. He refused to return to Rome. He took passage on a Cargo ship bound for LYCIA on the southern coast of Anatolia (not far from Rhodes)

3AD

DURANT

Ovid married a third time
Nov 46 the poet settled down to domestic life with FABIA